

Special Notices.

Printers' Banquet.—CELEBRATION OF FRANKLIN'S BIRTH-DAY ON FRIDAY EVENING, Jan. 16, 1852, at Niblo's.—The Committee of Arrangements have the pleasure of announcing that there will be present on this occasion many of the most eminent public and literary gentlemen of our city, as well as distinguished representatives of the various professions most closely connected with the Typographical art. The Vocal and Instrumental Music (embracing Duschetz's Band, the Alleghanians and the Hutchinses) will be of the highest character—and, in connection with the responses from popular speakers, must render the Festival peculiarly interesting.

Persons wishing to participate should procure their tickets to-day, as no more will be issued.

Gentlemen's ticket, $2; Lady's, $1. Can be obtained at Nast & Co.'s, corner of Wall and Water sts., at Baker & Godwin & Co.'s Tribune Building, or at the Printers' Library, No. 30 Broadway.

JAMES NARINE, Chairman.
